

Navarro Ramon, after passing through a period of pure abstract forms, now uses them as a ground into which are incorporated figures and animals. The color of the background sometimes contrasts with and at other times harmonizes with the figures. His painting, shown at Sala Gaudi, is fresh and youthful belying his more than 70 years.

Crítica de Mercedes Molleda